THE visit of the Brench fleet to Vladivostook last month appears to have passed off very agreeably, though without any official demonstration on the part of the Russians. The French floet arrived on 2nd September. and left on the 17th. During the whole of that time, the visitors were most hospitably entertained at the Club and in private houses, the only formal festivity being a dinner of twelve covers given by Vice Admiral Nazimoff. Three Russian men-of-war were in port. On the 11th the annual fêle in honour of the Czar was held. There were illuminations on the usual scale, but cribes .- Japan Gazette. there was no special festivity in honour of the visitors. The recurrence of this fête during the stay of the French fleet has probably given rise to the rumour that special demonstrations had been made at Vladivostock in connection with the entente cordials between the French and Russian Governments. - N. In an interview with Miss Cuthbertson, missionary amongst Chinese girls in San imposed. Francisco, a paper of that city elicits the information that there are scores of female Chinese slaves in San Francisco to-day. Most of the young Chinese girls who come are bought as slaves; and cash payment to parents has secured their services. other cases they are kidnapped. In still others these girls leave Hongkong deluded into coming by false pretences. There are a few who come actually as wives, but not many. From first to last they are under intimidation. They are told what they must say to be allowed to land. They are victims to a regularly-organized conspicacy existing on both sides of the Pacific, to consign them to slavery and lifelong degetting safely through the Courts by dint ! of lying as instructed is greater than any other fear.

THE Duke of Fife, who presided over the seventy-third annual meeting of the British plied to the Harbour-master, who adand Foreign Sailors' Society, held last May in the Fishmongers'-hall, writes to say that during his recent visit to Copenhagen he spoke to the Emperor of Russia on the question of the world-wide work of this society and the desire of seamen to have established a seaman's institute at St. Petersburg, and possibly in other Russian ports. The Duke says :- His Majesty has kindly consented to become patron of Foreign Affairs at St. Petersburg to announce to the British and Foreign Sailors' society's solicitation of taking under his august patronage those institutions which the society propose to establish in the Russian Empire, and the undersigned has great pleasure in communicating the above to the society named.
